

PRESS RELEASE

ENNA PARISET APPOINTED HEAD OF CORPORATE & INSTITUTIONAL BANKING FOR BNP PARIBAS IN SWITZERLAND

Enna Pariset is appointed Head of Corporate & Institutional Banking (CIB) in Switzerland.

She replaces Patrick Vögeli who is leaving BNP Paribas in agreement with the bank, to give a new direction to his career and to take new challenges. Through his longstanding commitment at the helm in Zurich Patrick Vögeli built the Fixed Income franchise, being the voice and face of the bank in the German speaking part of Switzerland.

Growing our Corporate & Institutional Banking client franchise in Switzerland is strategic, especially in the German-speaking part. Enna will drive the pursuit of this objective by leveraging her deep client-facing experience.

Locally, Enna reports to Monique Vialatou, CEO of BNP Paribas (Suisse) SA and Country Head for Switzerland. She will become a member of the General Management of BNP Paribas Suisse (SA), once regulatory approval has been obtained.

Enna Pariset has 26 years of experience working in the US, the UK, France and Switzerland. She has previously worked at the World Bank in Washington DC and at JP Morgan in London and Paris. Enna has been with BNP Paribas for nearly 16 years in both client origination and management roles, encompassing Corporate Finance, Commodities and Coverage. She also served as Global Head of Metals and Mining Investment Banking and Head of Food, Beverage and Retail Investment Banking EMEA. She has been the Head of Corporate and Commodities Coverage Switzerland since April 2018.
