MEDIA RELEASE

MARCO CITRINI APPOINTED HEAD OF SECURITIES SERVICES FOR BNP PARIBAS SWITZERLAND

- BNP Paribas continues to grow its Corporate and Institutional Banking franchise in Switzerland
- Marco Citrini is appointed Head of Securities Services Switzerland, effective 1 November 2026, based in Zurich

BNP Paribas has appointed Marco Citrini as Head of Securities Services Switzerland, which is an integral part of BNP Paribas' Securities Services business, a leading global custodian with USD 17.5 trillion in assets under custody*. This appointment is part of a long-term succession planning as Marco succeeds Garrick Dean Smith who will now focus on expanding relationships with key Swiss institutional clients as Managing Director, Client Coverage Securities Services Switzerland. Marco will strive to reinforce our position as a leading provider of custodian and fund services in the country.

Marco Citrini brings more than three decades of financial industry experience, where he held several senior positions at American Express, Bank Leu, and ABN AMRO. He joined BNP Paribas in 2001, at the inception of Securities Services Switzerland, as the permanent employee No. 2 and has since played a decisive role in developing the business. Most recently, he served as Head of Client Line for Financial Intermediaries & Corporates and Deputy Branch Manager for Securities Services Switzerland.

"Marco's in-depth expertise and leadership will be key to driving our strategic growth in Switzerland, reinforcing our commitment to excellence and strengthening our local and global footprint," stated Thorsten Gommel, Head of Securities Services, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Netherlands & Nordics, BNP Paribas.

"We are delighted to welcome Marco to this key role for our business in Switzerland. His extensive experience and dedication to BNP Paribas will be invaluable as we continue to build on our strong foundations in Switzerland and proximity to our clients to pursue our ambitious 2030 Growth Plan and develop our comprehensive offering for Swiss pension funds together with BNP Paribas Asset Management Switzerland," commented Enna Pariset, Chief Executive Officer and Head of Territory for BNP Paribas Group in Switzerland.
